> This is so much fun. It is almost addictive. Every 30 minutes or so, I go to my AGLOCO account page and check my referrals. I got 4 directs and almost 500 extended so far today. That gives me 2,500 in total. If it keeps growing at this rate I will be over 5,000 by Sunday.

> It is pretty cool to think that I helped 5,000 people get involved with AGLOCO.
>
> As usual - I checked my favorite blogs - they are now silent on AGLOCO - I wonder how many signups the VentureBeat guy has? Oh well that is OK. The bigger the network gets the stronger it becomes and every Member wins.

> Its nice to see Members excited about wanting to grow the community. The larger the AGLOCO network the stronger the company becomes.
>
> Thanks to all our Members so far! We are growing strongly and we are glad that you are enjoying the process.
